You know that feeling of knowing without a doubt that you have finally found what you were looking for? That is how I felt today during my appointment with Edz. After months of looking for a professional, knowledgeable, friendly and gentle stylist in Abu Dhabi, I can say I found her. And boy, oh boy, am I delighted and relieved. I am going to recommend her to anyone and everyone. You might want to check her insta @edzasuncion to get an idea of her work. Know that on top of her hair coloring mastery she is a sweet and kind gentle person. Plus she gives terrific hair washing massages.
