

TARA ROSE

SALON

Vicki

STYLIST

"To make you feel truly heard, cared for, confident and beautiful in your hair."

I have been in the industry for 13 years, born and raised in South Africa. I love making my clients feel seen and transforming not only their hair but their confidence as well. Most clients would describe me as a warm, out the box thinker, passionate about people and hair.

SPECIALISES IN

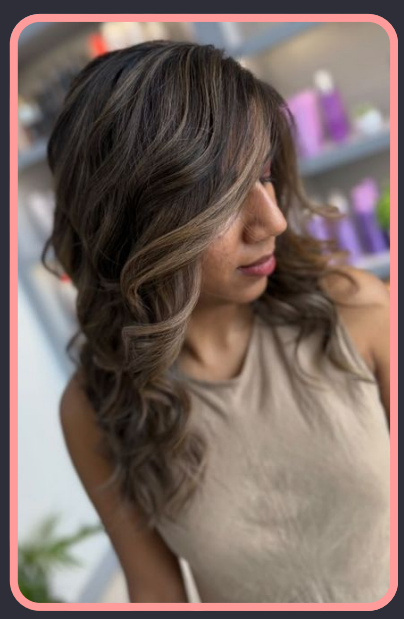

- Hair colour corrections
- All cutting techniques (long and short)
- Blonding (highlights and balayage)
- Funky, fashion colours

BEST FOR

- Clients who want beautiful, healthy, personalised hair and a stylist they can trust to achieve their hair goals.

THE VIBE

- Welcoming
- Trustworthy
- Empowering

You'll love me if...

You want a stylist who genuinely listens, takes the time to understand your hair goals, and cares just as much about the health of your hair as the final result.

What matters most to me...

That my clients feel safe and confident in my chair, while leaving with hair they love and the knowledge to look after it between appointments.

In my chair you can...

Relax, ask questions, be completely honest about your hair history and know that you're in a judgement-free space where we'll work together to create the best result for you and your hair.
